Dear Parents/Guardians,

January has come and gone very quickly. A new year and some new achievements for Ennis Educate Together. We are delighted to announce our class for children with autism has been sanctioned.

We look forward to an exciting term ahead. We have Chinese New Year, World Book Day, Seachtain na Gaeilge, St. Patrick's Day and a change to Spring ahead of us.

Principal's Corner

Happy New Year!

- As the cold weather is upon us please make sure your phone number is up to date with the school. If the school must close for safety reasons, we will let you know by text.
- We are looking forward to celebrating Chinese New Year on Tues. 5th Feb. We are asking all staff and pupils to wear red to celebrate.
- I am delighted that our class for children with autism was sanctioned. We are excited to welcome more pupils to the Ennis Educate Together family.
- Applications for Junior Infants and our new class close on the 1st March. Make sure to have your application form and birth cert submitted to the office by 1st March to be considered for a place. Spaces are limited.

Learning Together at Ennis Educate Together

Shared Reading

5th/6th class did a reading session with our infant class. Our infants absolutely loved it.

Science

5th/6th class were dissecting animals to learn about the respiratory system.

Hot Choc Friday

Pupils who go 'Over and Above' during the week can be nominated for Hot Choc Friday with the Principal, Trina.

Tech in Education

All of our classes sometimes use technology such as laptops and tablets to help them learn.
